

LAND PURCHASED FOR NEW SCHOOL IN DECOTO DISTRICT

The Decoto Elementary School District is in process of purchasing 10 acres of land on Whipple Road for the site of a new school plant, according to announcement this week. Price being paid for the property is $23,250.

The new plant will include administrative quarters, kindergarten, 13 classrooms and a 100-by-60-foot multiple purpose room, equipped with stage, to serve as auditorium and cafeteria.

FRAME AND STUCCO

The general plan, drawn by Clark and Stromquist, Palo Alto architects, calls for frame and stucco construction with overhead natural lighting.

The site and general utilization map and general plan have already been approved by the State Department of Education, division of school house planning, according to L. W. Musick, district superintendent.

PLANS CHANGED

Purchase of the Whipple Road property follows a year-long effort to acquire additional land for an enlarged school plant. About eight acres across H Street from the present school was under consideration but was abandoned when numerous complications as well as a matter of cost arose.

The two parcels constituting the 10-acre site have been purchased from Mrs. Luisa Gutierrez and her sons, Francisco and Miguel and from Raymond Cadman and his wife, Dolores.

The new school project will be financed with a $306,000 grant from the state and $15,000 remaining from last year's bond issue.

Completion of the new building is scheduled for next spring.

When school opens in present quarters in September, there will be double shift sessions in the first six grades and in the kindergarten, Musick says. An enrollment of over 700 is expected.

HORSEMEN'S GROUP WINS PARADE PRIZE

Another award has been won by the Southern Alameda County Horsemen's Association, according to William Davis, president, who states that the riding group has received a trophy for the best western-mounted entry in the San Leandro July Fourth parade.

The group rides in colorful western costume and carries pennants for Decoto, Niles, Centerville and Newark. Pennants for all of the Washington Township communities are planned.

NEWARK MEN ON TRIP THROUGHOUT THE EAST

Harry Houston and John Santos of Newark are now on their way home from a two weeks' trip in the east. They flew to Chicago and then Detroit, where Santos picked up a new car. They drove on to New York and Washington, and on their way homeward stopped for five days at Houston's family home in St. Louis.

NEWARK CHAMBER SEEKS BRANCH BANK FOR TOWN

The banking committee of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, which has sought establishment of a bank in the community for several years, reported at Tuesday's regular monthly meeting that some interest has been shown—but that no local bank is yet in prospect.

"It seems strange to me," one San Francisco banker has written to the Chamber, "in view of the many firms and industries located in your city, that a branch bank has not already been opened by one of the banks interested in branch banking."

"In view of the rapid growth of your city in the last 14 months, it seems unlikely that your lack of banking facilities will long continue."

The Newark Chamber's bank committee has compiled the following data, upon which it bases its argument that a local bank is needed:

Estimated population: 2500; surrounding area, 700.

Population growth in last 14 months: 33 per cent.

Number of stores and small businesses: 30.

Industries and factories in Newark: 12.

Approximate number of employees: 1450.

Approximate payroll: $5,100,000.

Principal agricultural products: dairy, fruits, poultry and eggs, vegetables.

Number of families: 800.

Elementary school registration: 300.

Homes owned by occupants: 80 per cent.

Average annual family income: $3,500.

OPPOSE BRIDGE CLOSING

Upon hearing a report that the Southern Pacific Company has applied for Army-Navy permission to close the drawbridge section at Newark Slough, the Chamber voted unanimously to advise the Army and Navy by telegram that the waterway be kept open for possible future shipping needs.

Unanimous vote also favored continued operation of the Washington Township Community Chest.

TELEPHONE BILLING

In support of efforts of the Niles Chamber of Commerce to ask the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to list destination of toll calls by town and number, the Newark Chamber voted agreement, and instructed Secretary Ray Alberts to write both the telephone company and the state Public Utilities Commission of its action.

The meeting was conducted by President Gordon Cotton. Frank X. Veit acted as secretary in the absence of Secretary Ray Alberts.

The deceased, a member of a prominent Irvington family, was a native of Pico, the Azores. He was a member of U.P.E.C. of Centerville.

He is survived by his widow; by two sons, Isadore and Alfred Peixoto, both of Irvington; and by two sisters, Mary C. Peixoto of Irvington and Isabel Bernardo of Pico. He was the grandfather of Marvin Peixoto and Merle Peixoto of Irvington.

NEW STREET LIGHTS ORDERED FOR NILES

Six new street lights at Niles and Centerville have been granted by the county Board of Supervisors, it was announced at Tuesday's meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

New lights will be placed as follows: Four in the Ellsworth tract; one in front of the Women's Country Club building on Parish Avenue at Centerville, and one at the entrance to the California Nursery Company.

BENEFIT WHIST IS A GREAT SUCCESS

The benefit whist given for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dias and family by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Paul E. Rivers Post, V.F.W., on Friday, July 15, was a huge success.

The Ladies' Auxiliary should be congratulated for their splendid work in aiding families.

They in turn wish Mr. and Mrs. Dias and family every success in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Foster of Newark are still in a "rubbing-the-eyes" state over the fact that their sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Foster, was recently the subject of a front-page spread in one of London's biggest newspapers, "The Daily Mail."

A picture of Mrs. Foster, taken by Kenneth Foster, was printed in the Daily Mail with a complete story by one of its feature writers, Betty Rosamond, telling about an interview with Mrs. Foster, who is now visiting her family in England for the first time since she became the bride of Robert Foster. Mr. Foster was a lieutenant in the Air Corps stationed in Great Britain during the war.

It all came about because Mr. Foster, a reporter on the San Mateo Times, became fed up with all of the publicity given G.I. brides who expressed discontent with their life in America. He personally knew of one G.I. bride (his wife) who was perfectly happy in her little home in Mountain View.

So he wrote to the London Daily Mail, suggesting that inasmuch as his happy G.I. bride was visiting in England at the present time, it might be well for someone to get her story. He was certain that she would give a true and complete account of her life in America.

None was more surprised than Mr. Foster when the Daily Mail took him up on the suggestion, and not only interviewed his wife, but gave her story such prominence in the paper.

Mrs. Foster is making a six months' sojourn in England, and is planning to return to America and her home in Mountain View this fall.

The following is the letter Mr. Foster wrote to the Daily Mail:

"I am a former Air Force Lieutenant, now a working newspaper man (San Mateo Times), who married one of the most charming young ladies in the British Isles, the former Patricia Ward-Simpson. "At the present time Mrs. Foster and our two lovely children, Ann and Lyn, are visiting relatives and friends in the British Isles.

"If you would like to interview Mrs. Foster, I believe she would be more than glad to give you an undistorted view of the lives of G.I. brides in the United States."

This is the account of the interview as told by the London Daily Mail feature writer, Betty Rosamond:

Mrs. Foster certainly was a living advertisement for happy G.I. brides as she opened the door of her Thames Valley house at Hampton-mill, Middlesex, with a warm "Hullo," the other afternoon.

Evidently I noted her nylons, her matching gold necklace and earrings—still unobtainable in

Mrs. Robert Foster, shown with her children, Ann and Lyn, prior to sailing for England where she is visiting her family. Her husband achieved sudden fame for himself and wife by claiming that she is one British G.I. bride who is happily living in America. —Photo by Kenneth Foster

Britain—and her cool summer frock in New World stripes the colour of nasturtiums.

Her two young daughters, not at all shy and every bit as lovely as Mr. Foster had promised, completed the welcome.

"That's my daddy!" crisply announced five-year-old Ann, pointing to a photograph on a side table.

"My dolly's name is Mary," confided three-year-old Lyn.

With typical New World zest, Mrs. Foster told of her experiences. HOMSICKNESS

There was the first six months' agony of homesickness and the warm friendliness of her husband's folk that held her up. There was all the good-natured teasing about her British accent and her habit of afternoon tea. There was the exhilaration of building up an ideal home in a land where sacrifice and hard work can assure material benefits now.

To crown everything there is now the happy realization that things are much better in Britain than she had expected.

Mrs. Foster met her husband when he was stationed at Bushy Park nearby, and when she was working in bank at Kew Gardens and spending three evenings a week making spare parts for aeroplanes.

When she left for the U. S. in 1945 with baby Ann in her arms, she left a Britain of dawn queues of stockings and shoes, of cosmetics and perfumes "under the counter." Life was drab and difficult.

NO GRUMBLES

She has come back to find it as optimistic as the roses, delphiniums, mock orange blossoms and lavender now decking the Thames-side gardens. We even have coloured sheets and towels again.

Naturally she is not as pleased with the food position as she is with that of clothes. But, relieved of housekeeping worries here, and determined to be adaptable, she has no grumbles.

She does, however, miss the fruit of California. We think it wonderful to have tomatoes, cherries, gooseberries and raspberries all at once, but in San Mateo Mrs. Foster can buy all kinds of fruit, either frozen or fresh all the year through.

At home the children can have an afternoon drink of pineapple juice. Here they are only having occasional allocations of bananas.

All the family could do with a little more meat. "The first thing I am going to have on my return to the U. S.," laughed Mrs. Foster, "is a nice juicy steak!"

The return of pretty little cakes into the shops delights her eye, though their 50 per cent increase in price over pre-war values shocked her a little.

Because Ann and Lyn have never eaten much candy, the current shortage of sweets is not causing the Foster family much trouble. In fact, Mrs. Foster, who is indulging in that U. S. luxury, a diet, is glad there is no milk chocolate about to tempt her.

Despite the unrationed gayness of the clothes shops, Mrs. Foster has found that variety in materials and clothes is still limited.

"I trudged the whole of London and didn't see a thing I wanted. I was very disappointed," she told me.

She realizes just how limited is the range of materials available when people stop to admire Ann's flower-printed blue voile frock.

ABUNDANCE

Because she hasn't the heart to crow about her good fortune in coming from a land of plenty, Mrs. Foster just says to inquirers, "Nice, isn't it? My mother-in-law made it!"

The children's patent leather shoes attract much attention as we haven't seen patent leather since before the war.

But Mrs. Foster is very pleased with the knitting wool, which is

SHOE-STRING DEAL NETS FIVE DOLLARS

A fast-talking customer walked into Edward Pimentel's place of business in Centerville last week and asked for two pairs of shoe strings. He handed Pimentel a ten-dollar bill.

Just as Pimentel was counting out the change, the customer came up with a dollar bill that he'd "just happened to find," and suggested the storekeeper, in order to save the small change, swap back a five dollar bill for four dollars and odd change of the original ten plus the dollar.

"Let me give you back your five, now," said the customer, "and you give me back my ten."

It sounded right to Pimentel—as it would to anyone—and he obliged.

The customer pocketed the shoe strings, the money, and walked out with five dollars more than he had when he came in.

It's an old, old trick, and quite an artful one. They call it "laying the note."

HONOR MEMBERS OF OLD FAMILIES

A dinner honoring the descendants of Alameda County pioneers will be held on August 30 at the Moose Club, 1428 Alice Street, in Oakland, according to an announcement this week from Albert E. Norman, who will officiate as master of ceremonies at the banquet.

Reservations for the affair, which will start at 6:30, may be made with the Ellsworth Company in Niles.

According to Norman, descendants of such prominent Alameda County families as the Bernals, the Alvissos, the Peraltas, and the Estudillos will be present. Altogether, a crowd of over 400 is expected to attend the gala affair. Joseph Knowland, publisher of the Oakland Tribune, will be the main speaker. Music will be played under the direction of Maynard Jones.

Another diversion of the evening will be the showing of old Alameda County photographs.

THETA RHO MAKES PLANS FOR FALL

The regular meeting of Necona Theta Rho Girls' Club No. 46 was held last Monday with President Margaret Cole presiding.

Plans were discussed for a bake sale to be held in the early fall. It was also decided that a banquet would be held at the end of each six month term, in honor of the retiring president.

The girls postponed their initiation until August 15 at which time they will have as their guest the district's new Theta Rho Board of Control member, Claire Beecher.

After the meeting was adjourned, a party was held in honor of Leone Lammi and Charlene O'Brien who have birthdays in July. Each of the girls received an exquisitely modeled gold pencil.

Elywn Dunstan, president of the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce, will open the ceremony by introducing Joe Kirby Jr., general chairman, who will act as master of ceremonies.

MOTOR PARADE

The day of celebration actually opens at 8:30 a. m. today, when a cavalcade to include official delegations from Santa Clara, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties starts forming at San Jose. Mayor Fred Watson of that city will head the cavalcade moving up from San Jose. Community delegations to join the cavalcade include: Livermore, Pleasanton, Hayward, San Leandro, San Lorenzo, Niles, Irvington, Newark, and Centerville.

The parade, to feature an outstanding collection of early-day horseless carriages mobilized by the Antique Automobile Club of California, Inc., and the famed 24-man Oakland Police Department motorcycle drill team, will start at the western entrance to Lakeside Park at 11 a.m. and move via Grand Avenue, Broadway, Tenth, Fallon, and East Twelfth to the dedication site.

The huge outdoor barbecue, starting at noon, will be served in true frontier style, with the "cited" exception that parking space, tables and chairs will be provided for the guests. More than 500 persons will partake of the tasty barbecued fare.

cheaper and better here than in the U. S. She admits, too, that British clothes last longer than American clothes.

As a connoisseur she is glad to see good shoes coming back again into the shops... at the outbreak of the war her shoe-collection hobby had resulted in a "bag" of 35 pairs!

With a refrigerator and radio-gram to buy for her new home in the U. S., she can't indulge in such pastimes today, but the satisfying thing about life in the U. S. is the ability to build up a gracious existence. True, we can buy refrigerators and radiograms here, but few young married couples have homes of their own in which to put such equipment.

Mrs. Foster confirmed that her husband helps her in the kitchen and frequently bathes the children. Though not willing to lend herself in any fierce controversy, Mrs. Foster had to admit that she thinks American husbands more thoughtful than British ones.

U. S. wives she considers hold the purse strings. In her case her husband hands her the whole of his pay cheque. "I take every time," she laughed.

MUTUAL TRUST

Such mutual trust, of course, prevents extravagance. Wives who cut down their husbands' cigarette money can scarcely indulge in a surfeit of candy bars and magazines.

What Mrs. Foster likes, too, about U. S. life is the dignity of human labour and lack of snobbery. She was vastly intrigued because her husband worked his way through college selling newspapers.

She enjoys meeting at their local club the man who earlier in the day came in dungarees to mend the gas boiler.

She appreciates also the self-service shops. "There's no craning of your neck to see what's happening behind the counter."

GREEN FIELDS

She likes the way in which people get out and enjoy themselves whatever their incomes.

Among her dislikes are the high stools in the drug stores on which it is so difficult to keep young children seated, and the reluctance of the people of California to "call." "You have to borrow a cup of sugar to get acquainted."

Most of all she misses the country lanes and leafy parks of Britain.

They are visiting at the Winda home, Florence's folks in Eagle Rock, and Larry's folks, as well as old time friends. It will be a while yet before she can resume her duties at the Guadalupe Inn. She still sports some very nasty looking black and blue spots but no broken bones.

TRANSFERRED HERE

ON WITH THE NEW!

The old blacksmith shop (with-out the "spreading chestnut tree") which Bert McIvor has owned and operated for many years and which turned out many a pair of shoes for the horses of bygone days, is having a nice new face lifting. Bert, having been sort of not feeling too good and because horseless carriages and tractors have taken the place of "nags," has decided to convert his blacksmith shop into a modern hardware shop with a store room in the back, so with Frank Dias directing the work and Robert McIvor, his assistant, helping, they are putting up a very attractive building in front of the old shop. Mr. McIvor will carry a line of heaters, bath tubs, hardware supplies and garden implements. Good luck old timer.

IN HOSPITAL AGAIN

Tony Rogers, who has been in and out of the Veterans Hospital for several years since his service in the late war, is again on his way to San Francisco Letterman Hospital for another of his check-ups, and let's hope it is only that

This familiar sight was repeated 71,000 times last year

It was an all-time record... more than 71,000 new connections to P. G. and E. lines in one year—1948. Nearly 60,000 of them were new single-family dwelling units. That's more than the number of connections we made in the last two prewar years put together... a dramatic example of California's growth. In the 46 counties we serve, there are half again as many people as in 1940... more than 1,500,000 new power users. It takes lots of horsepower to meet their requirements... and here's what we're doing to provide it:

Five new power generating plants have been brought on the line in the last thirteen months. Their combined capacity is almost 600,000 horsepower.

New power lines, built since the war to carry electricity where it's needed, would reach half-way around the earth at the equator... 12,000 miles.

We're rushing still more plants to meet California's future growth. By the end of 1951, we will have doubled our prewar generating capacity.

Work never stops on our power-building program

'Old-timer' has a special meaning at Standard

They say you're not really an "old-timer" at Standard until you've been on the job at least 20 years... and at 30 years, there's a special company award: a gold watch and six weeks' vacation with pay.

That's appreciation of a man's service to his company, of course, but it also illustrates a principle we believe in for all employees—good people in good jobs serve you best, and we do everything we can to make jobs at Standard good.

Security, good pay and working conditions, advancement from within, free insurance, annuities at retirement are all part of making that principle a reality.

The average length of service of all our 17,890 parent company employees is slightly more than 11 years. And the 20-year "old-timers"? Fully 4,856 are working with us today.

DAY BY DAY IN DECOTO

By GRACE CAMINADA

LAST RITES

Funeral services were held last Friday from the Garden Chapel of the Pratt-Flierl Mortuary in Hayward for Florence Henderson of the Masonic Home. She was the wife of the late Orrin F. Henderson, past grand master of the Masonic Lodge, State of California. She was the mother of George B. Parkinson. A native of California, she was 69 years of age.

AN ACCIDENT

Frank Azevedo is home from work due to an accident which occurred at the steel mill last week. He suffered a slight injury to his foot. Glad it wasn't serious, Frank.

PNEUMONIA VICTIM

Charles Meyers of Railroad Avenue is recovering from pneumonia which he developed almost overnight.

RETURNS TO SAN JOSE

Danny Blaylock, who has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scarpiniti for several months, has returned to San Jose.

IN CONVENTION PARADE

The Alvarado Ladies Drill team, with Mrs. Mary Re of Decoto as captain, marched in the Y.L.I. and Y.M.I. convention parade in San Jose Sunday. The group expects to march in the Holy Ghost celebration parade next Sunday in Santa Clara and also at the Holy Ghost parade in Gilroy July 31.

VACATIONING

Mrs. J. L. Olson and Mrs. Viola George recently enjoyed a vacation in southern California.

LET'S COOPERATE, KIDS!

The other day I had the nicest woman call me up and ask if I could put some sort of notice in my column asking the children who have been scratching cars around the Marlo Cannery to put an end to their mischievousness. I think it's a shame to come out from a day's hard work on your feet and find profane words and other scratches all over your car. The fact of the matter is, most of the damaged cars are models of the last few years.

Mothers, please caution your children to stay away from these cars. These ladies are disgusted and will take matters somewhere where results will take place. One of these ladies had to have her car repainted because the damage on her car was too much. Come on, now, let's cooperate and occupy our time with fair play.

SUMMER PLAY

The Decoto Elementary School playground is open to pupils from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. with Ramon Pagan in charge for the summer months. Equipment will be given out by him and all pupils can play to their heart's content.

FROM NEW MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Escue of the Sycamore Auto Center are having visitors from New Mexico.

TO LOS ANGELES

Kit Catlin left Thursday for Los Angeles for the week-end.

IN LONG BEACH

Ray Cadman recently spent a week visiting his relatives in Long Beach. The trip was wonderful but the weather was a bit too warm.

WELCOME, STRANGER

Johnny George put in his appearance last Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the San Jose Hospital. His proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence George. Mr. and Mrs. George of Milpitas and Mr. and Mrs. Torquemada of Fourteenth Street, Decoto, are the grandparents.

AT YOSEMITE

Joe Andrade, custodian at the Decoto Elementary School, and wife are vacationing at Yosemite Park.

AT PINECREST

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Fine and daughters are spending a week's vacation at Pinecrest where "Jim-mie" hopes to get in a lot of trout fishing.

BUSY FIREMEN

The local firemen were out on two calls last week. One was at the Kennedy ranch where a shed caught fire but it was put out in time to prevent the fire from spreading. The other call was made near the Zwissig ranch where a truck with a boom hit a telephone pole, which caused the wires to break and catch fire. This fire was also put out soon enough to prevent serious damage.

MUMPS VICTIM

Barbara Cadman is rather miserable these days as she has the mumps. Certainly hope you get well soon, Barbara.

THE VICTORS

Last Monday night the Marlo Packers and Y.M.I. played in the second to last game scheduled for the Marlo team in the Washington Township Softball Association. The game was a great pitchers' battle between Pete Alcorn for Marlo and E. Telles for Y.M.I., neither team being able to score in the first six innings. Finally Marlo scored two runs in the seventh to win 2 to 0.

After the Marlo Packing team finishes in this league, they will play in the Hayward Recreation

SOMETHING NEW

Gadgets and modern inventions intrigue me. I was completely fascinated by what I saw this week in the Powder Room at Ole's Waffle Shop at 368 14th Street, Oakland. Even if you women don't stop to dine there, at least walk through and see it.

LIGHTS! CAMERAS! ACTION!

There's an old saying, "Everything happens in Niles." This was borne out again in a regular frontier-town episode that happened this week in one of the local bistros. (I didn't see it, but I heard several accounts of it.) According to the story, two local women had a few words. The "few words" soon became hotter and louder. Eventually everything got out of control and the two women had a regular knock-down-and-drag-out fight, complete with hair-pulling 'n everything. It must have been reminiscent of a western movie of the old frontier days.

Softball League for the rest of the season.

ON VACATION

Mrs. Raymond Perry is now on vacation from her work at the salt company.

AT COLUMBIA

Last Sunday, your reporter, her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cambra of Hayward motored to Columbia to enjoy the California Gold Rush Centennial celebration which was held there for three days. We visited with Mrs. Adrian Martinez and her mother of St. Francis Woods in San Francisco, who also have a home in Columbia. Mrs. Sartorius is an old time resident of Columbia. My husband stayed with her in 1935 and was very glad to see her again.

We viewed some of the 375 attractions and exhibits which were there. The parade, which was about an hour long, was also interesting. It was led by Governor Earl Warren and Joseph L. Knowland in an ancient phaeton. My husband and Manuel took part in the gold panning where the people panned virgin sand and gravel. On Saturday one woman found a $90 nugget but our men folks were not as lucky. More than $300,000 in gold and gold nuggets were also on exhibit.

Some of the townspeople were disappointed by the lack of a large crowd but it seemed as a good time was being had by all. This little town of Columbia is now a state park and will be kept old looking in the spirit of the '49ers for all persons to visit.

IN ST. LOUIS

Mrs. Elsie Brown and son, Jerry, are spending a few weeks vacation in St. Louis, Md. Have fun, folks.

Niles Couple See The Whole Country

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Orcutt have returned to their home in Niles after a three and a half month trip across the continent that they proclaimed to be "the best trip we ever had." They went by car—with a trailer—and saw all the sights between here and New York, stopping each night in a trailer park, and making it a very leisurely trip. In New York they visited relatives, and on the way home they stopped off and visited friends in several different towns in several different states.

As for prices, they found the cost of living to be the same in most parts of the country, with the exception of the state of New York, where they found that clothing was quite a bit cheaper.

Now that they have been traveling for so long, they can't seem to stay still, so have already taken off to their place on the San Joaquin River for a week of fishing.

A 'Barn' Warning In the Offing

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Fontes of Palm Avenue, Mission San Jose, are in the throes of remodeling their barn so that they can use it for folk-dancing. At its completion they intend to stage a folk-dance and "barn-warming."

Member of Logan Clan To Wed Oakland Girl

Of interest locally is the coming wedding of two Oakland young people, Anna Schwank, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Schwank, and Paul Elwood Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Elwood. The mother of the bridegroom-to-be is the former May Logan of the township and is very well known in this area. Her little niece, Sandra Sue Searles of Decoto, will be the flower girl at the wedding, which will be held in Oakland on August 14.

Mrs. Alwin Searles and Mrs. J. V. Gould are co-hostessing a bridal shower for the bride-elect this Saturday, for members of the family.

Another shower was the recent one co-hosted by Miss Harriet Dias of Niles, a sorority sister of the bride-to-be. The shower was held in Berkeley.

A 'Lucky' Vacation

The A. E. Alameda family of Irvington has settled back into the routine of everyday living again, but is still discussing Mrs. Alameda's phenomenal luck in hitting the dollar jackpot in one of the one-armed bandits up at Tahoe. Mr. and Mrs. Alameda recently returned from there after an eight-day sojourn at the Tahoe Biltmore.

According to the staff at the Biltmore, there hadn't been a dollar jackpot since last year! Mrs. A. is still remembering the "pinch-me-this-can't-be-true" feeling she had when the silver dollars came pouring out on her.

After arriving home she, and her daughter, Shirley, and her mother, Mrs. Petra Gronley, went on down to Burbank to visit relatives. Altogether they consider this vacation a completely satisfactory one.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Batman celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary last Friday by dining at the Balalaika in San Francisco, in the company of Mr. and Mrs. William Chilcote. A little dubious at first about eating Russian food, they were glad to see that there were portions that were Americanized, even though the atmosphere and the music retained the full Russian flavor.

At the Russian River And Camp Cazadero

Four Niles girls attended the Youth Fellowship camp at Cazadero near the Russian River last week. Those who enjoyed the week of work, play, and fun were Joan Vervais, Alice Gerrard, Donna Moore and Suzanne Gorman.

Three of the girls returned but Sue Gorman remained up there to spend another week at the river with her parents, who rented a cabin there. They are expected home this week-end.

VIVIAN ROSE RECITES VOWS AT NUPTIAL MASS AT HOLY GHOST CHURCH

By IRENE MENDONCA

Bornholdt, accompanied by Mrs. Velma Lewis at the organ, sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus."

Ushers were Richard Mendonca and Phil Sousa. A reception for 200 followed immediately after the ceremony at the bride's home on Central Avenue, Centerville.

Vivian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rose of Centerville. Mrs. Rose wore a lovely two-piece gray satin gown with matching accessories and a flowered hat of navy blue.

Clifford Costa is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Costa of Newark. The benedict's mother wore a navy blue model for her son's wedding.

The justweds are enjoying an undisclosed honeymoon after which they will reside at the Alameda Apartments in Centerville. The benedict is employed at Brahmst Electric in Niles.

French-Speaking Family in Irvington

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fleming of Irvington were their niece, Mrs. Rene LeFebvre, and husband and daughter, Danielle, of Montreal, Canada.

The LeFebvres, although they can't speak English, seemed to have managed their trip to California without too many difficulties despite the barrier of language.

Mrs. Fleming, who has lived in the French provinces of Canada herself, was able to converse with the family in French. She said that they were very much impressed by the stately palm trees at the Fleming place and by our wonderful California fruits.

Return from Tuolumne

S. Avilla of Niles and Mrs. M. E. Silva of Decoto, were also present.

Other guests who called to wish the little girl a happy birthday were Mrs. Joseph Schelbert and Mrs. Paul Melvin of Centerville, Mrs. Ruel Brown and Mrs. Peter Fracoli of Niles, and Mrs. Mick Rose of San Jose.

The traditional birthday fare was served—ice cream, cake and candy.

Harvest Time Guest

Mrs. Antonie Lesoine of Oakland, 84-year-old mother of Mrs. Emma Marks of Irvington, has been having the time of her life working in the apricots in the Marks orchard this week. Mrs. Agnes "Grandma" Murray of G Street, Niles, was taken to the Alameda Hospital this week suffering from a serious illness. Her many friends, and those of her daughter, Mrs. Rose Vieux, are wishing her a speedy recovery.

DECOTO DISCUSSION GROUP PLANS ANNUAL PICNIC AT MISS HYDE'S HOME

By ETHEL AVILLA

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Clifford Johnson last Wednesday, members of the Decoto Discussion Group first enjoyed a delicious buffet luncheon served at noon, then discussed the merits of raising a dozen children by the efficient, time saving methods used by their parents, Frank Gilbreth, the industrial engineer, and Lillian Moller Gilbreth, the psychologist.

"Cheaper by the Dozen" by Frank Gilbreth Jr. and Ernestine Carey Gilbreth is a humorous account of the goings-on in the Gilbreth household during the children's formative years. Mrs. John Whipple of Decoto, niece of Lillian Gilbreth, was a guest. She added items of special interest concerning the family that was not touched upon by the authors.

The annual picnic of the group will again be held in the garden of the summer home of Miss Olive Hyde in Mission San Jose on September 7. Mrs. Bernie Joseph has chosen for her meeting Harnett T. Kane's historical novel, "Bride of Fortune," based on the life of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Recovering at Hospital

GRAND NATIONAL PROGRAM OUTLINED

Plans for the 1949 Grand National Livestock Exposition, Horse Show and Rodeo, to be held in the Cow Palace in San Francisco Oct. 28 through Nov. 6, are shaping up well, according to Carl L. Garrison, secretary-manager of No. 1A District Agricultural Association, which operates the Cow Palace and annually sponsors the premier senior and junior livestock exhibitions of the west.

National breed associations have again given the Grand National the nod as one of the top flight shows of the nation, and are offering special wards in their breeds, in addition to premiums offered by No. 1A District, Garrison reported. Livestock judging will open Sunday, Oct. 30 and conclude on Wednesday, Nov. 2.

Charles W. Green of Moberly, Mo., one of the nation's outstanding authorities on American horseflesh, has been appointed manager of the 1949 Horse Show. He will confer with the Board of Directors and Garrison this month, preparatory to setting up classifications for the show.

For the third consecutive year, the Cow Palace rodeo has been selected for the International Rodeo Association's championship finals, assuring attendance of top rodeo riders from all parts of the country.

The exposition will open with a glittering performance on the night of Friday, Oct. 28 and continue nightly through Nov. 6, with matinees on Saturdays and Sundays, Oct. 29 and 30, and Nov. 5 and 6. Fourteen arena performers will be presented in addition to the most extensive array of livestock ever assembled at the Cow Palace.

Garrison also announced the new heating plant, authorized for the building, probably will be completed and in operation for the opening of the Grand National.

20 Years Ago

IN THE REGISTER

Twenty years ago in The Register there were only TEN (10) classified ads in the paper!

People were talking about:

The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Mat Santeio on the Shinn Ranch. It was burned to the ground. There were four children in the family. . . .

The store in the Peterson building in Niles which was being remodeled into a "unique radio shop" to be run by Joe Blacow and Marcella Sullivan. . . .

The appropriation of $40,000 for the rebuilding of Clark bridge in Niles Canyon, the money being appropriated by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, through the efforts of Supervisor Ralph Richmond. Also appropriated was $50,000 for the rebuilding of a bridge across Patterson's Slough on the Centerville-Alvarado highway. . . .

Apparently there had been a big fire in the environs of Niles for several people of South Niles made up a collection for the Centerville Fire Department (where was the Niles Fire Department?) in appreciation of services rendered. The fire department had put out the fires at the Children's Welfare Home (where was THAT?) and Tyson's drier. . . .

Those who contributed were: A. L. Bettencourt, R. W. Mendenhall, Frank Fields, Antonio Garcia, Robert Tyson, Antonio Ray, Victor Marshall, M. B. Bettencourt, George Donovan, Harold Houghton, Antonio D'Incenzo, M. Spetti, Joe Soares, Harry Tyson, Frank Rose, Lucas Brothers, Mrs. C. E. Martinstein, and Louis Tyson. . . .

The social highlights of the day are told in the following items:

Mrs. E. A. Richmond entertained a group of friends at a surprise shower in honor of Mrs. H. M. Kibby. . . .

DEER HUNTERS MAY USE ANY TYPE RIFLE

California hunters may go after deer and other big game animals this season with practically any type of rifle they wish, and even with bows and arrows, says Division of Fish and Game.

In the interests of conservation, the following arms and ammunition have been outlawed for the taking of deer, bear, antelope, and elk:

Shotguns using shot or slugs, pistols, rifles using rim-fire cartridges, or bullets with full metal jackets.

Muzzle-loaders, 22's, and foreign firearms are legal, as long as they do not violate the above restrictions. Only limitation for bow and arrow hunters afield during the special 10-day archery deer seasons is that arrowhead blades must not be less than seven-eighths inch wide.

California's first 1949 special archery deer hunting season begins one half hour before sunrise on Monday, July 25, ending August 3, reports the Division of Fish and Game.

Bow and arrow hunters, equipped with archery hunting licenses and special deer tags, may take two bucks in the central and south coastal areas, except San Diego County, during the 10-day season.
